THE MANAGER DARRELL CLARKE

Darrell Clarke has now settled into life at Cheltenham Town after becoming the club's new manager a few weeks ago.

The 45-year-old earned his first point as Robins boss in our 1-1 draw with Derby County at the Completely-Suzuki Stadium.

Speaking after his arrival in Gloucestershire Clarke said: "It's a club with a great history, they've had some good managers over the years and I'm really looking forward to the challenge."

Clarke has enjoyed a successful career in the game both as a player which spanned 18 years and then since as a manager where he has won promotions with Salisbury Town, Bristol Rovers and most recently Port Vale.

"It's always a club that I've thought has been a well-run football club in the past. I looked at it and put my CV in, obviously with plenty of games I've managed now, plenty of experience and I thought it's a job that I could make a difference in."

The Robins wouldn't find themselves in their current position without the work of Michael Duff and Elliott and the new manager was quick to recognise those feats.

"Credit to the work Michael Duff and Wade Elliott have done over the last few years and it has certainly been a well-run football club that has achieved success in getting promoted from League Two to League One."

There are a few recognisable faces for Clarke around the club having previously worked with George Lloyd and Liam Sercombe and they will know first hand the demands Clarke has in store for the players.

"Giving everything and that isn't just on a Saturday at three o'clock but throughout the week, the training plan, what they eat, how they live their lives and how they respond to what I want from them."

The former midfielder has arrived with the club in the midst of a poor run of form. But the events of the season so far aren't fazing him and his bullish approach, as seen in the hard fought draw against the Rams.

"I can't change the past. The only thing I can do is try and change the future. That's why I'm in the building to look at all aspects of the football club to get us back to positive results and positive performances.

"I will be assessing everything over the coming weeks and months to try and make sure we are moving in the right direction.

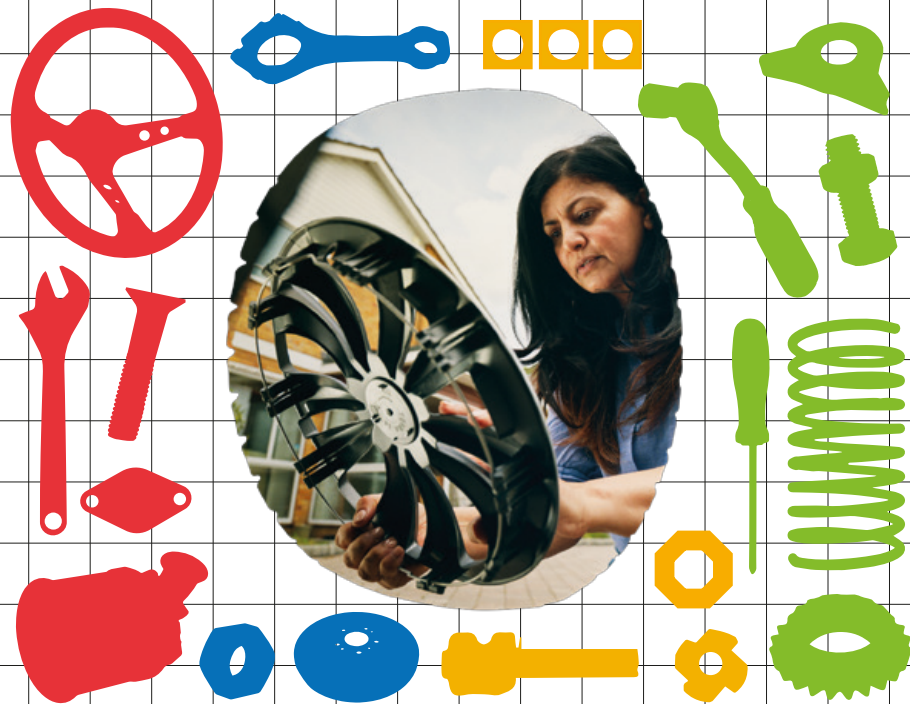

"It's going to take time. I'm not stupid enough to think that a team that hasn't won for 10 games isn't going to take time.

"I'm hoping to make a massive difference and I believe at every club I've managed I've put them in a better place and I will be looking to do the same with Cheltenham."

Our clash with Newport County marks the end of three successive home games to begin Clarke's reign, a reign which he will be hoping to win the hearts of the loyal Robins fanbase.

"The message is for us to get winning games. The only way you please fans up and down the country at different clubs is by winning football matches."

MATCH ACTION

ROB STREET

Fresh off of his first goal in Cheltenham Town colours, Rob Street is keen to kick on and push the Robins forward in their quest for survival.

The 21-year-old joined the Robins' ranks over the summer, signing a three-year deal to end his long-standing association with Crystal Palace, a club he called home for the majority of his youth.

Speaking when he first joined the club Street said, "I'm obviously delighted to be here.

"I've heard about the interest for a few months now and it was a very exciting project that I felt was the right next step for me."

The reception he received from the fans upon his signing pleased the striker and that has since been reciprocated in person, none more so than in the match against Derby County this past weekend.

"I've had a lovely reception off the fans on social media and lots of nice comments off them.

"I'm very grateful for that and excited to be here, to play for the club, work hard and hopefully win some games."

His journey in football has involved loan spells with Torquay United and League One rivals Shrewsbury Town where he found the net on four occasions as well as notching four assists too.

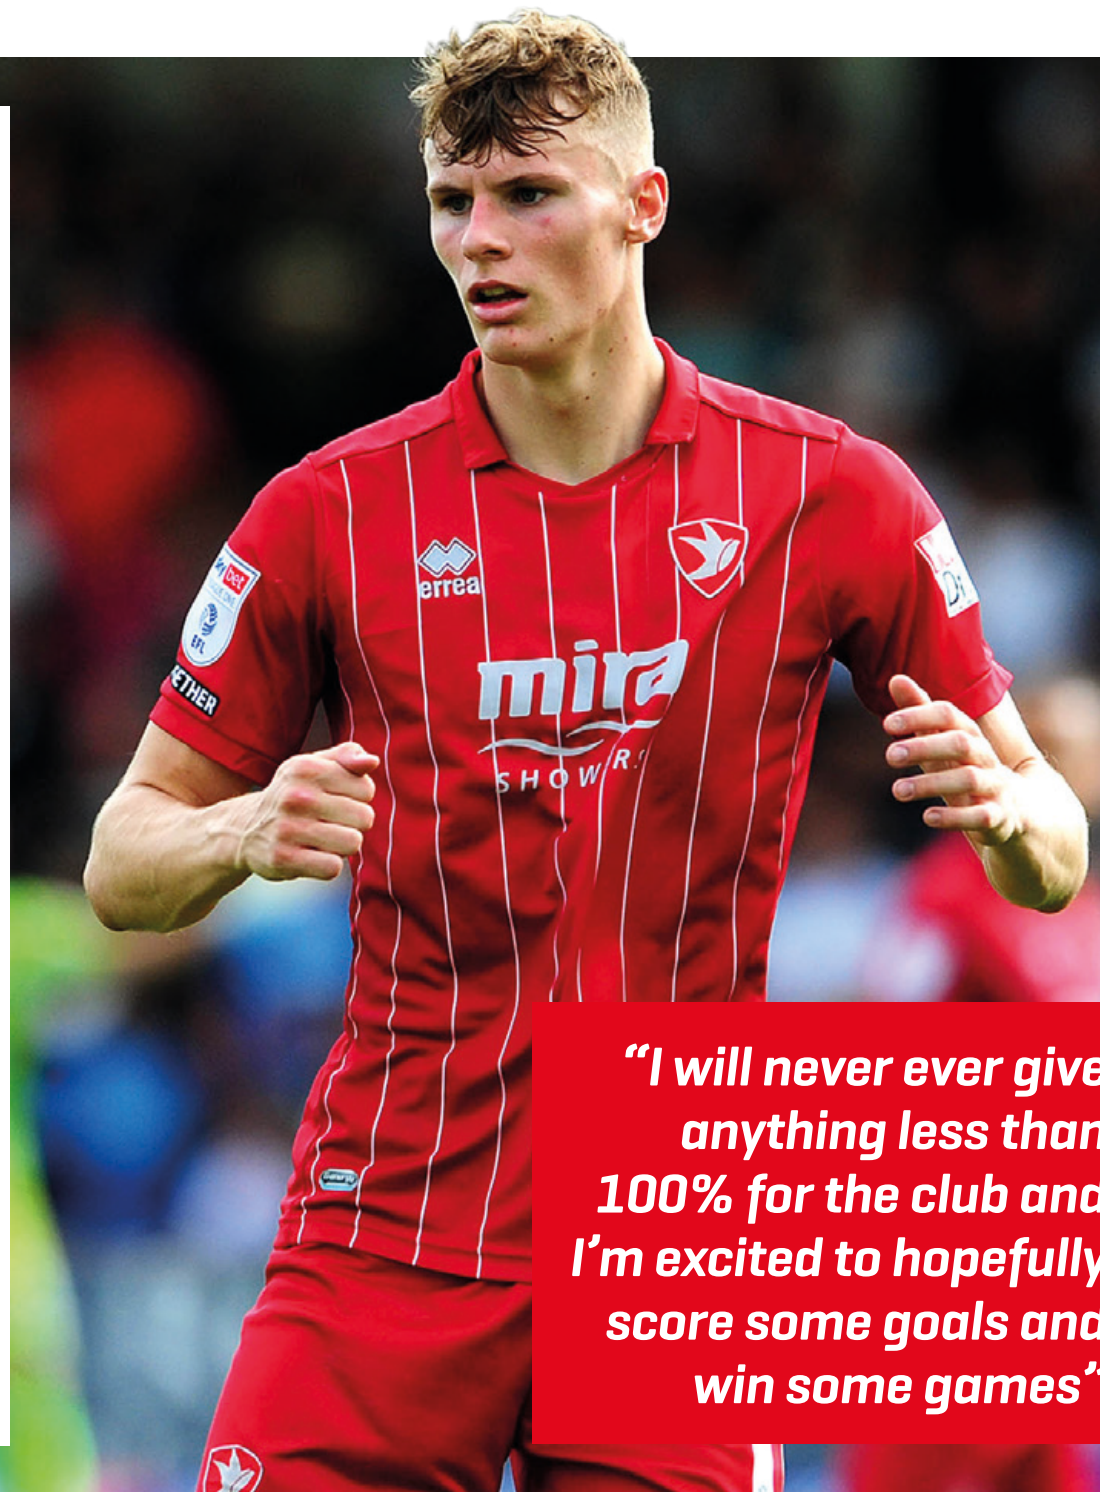

The striker also spent time with our opponents Newport County, his first loan spell in the Football League.

"I've been very fortunate over the last couple of seasons in playing a lot of games at Newport and Shrewsbury. I've learnt a lot in that process."

Streety has built up a simple but effective footballing style over the years and knows keeping the fans on side is pivotal.

"The fans will definitely see that I wear my heart on my sleeve. I will never ever give anything less than 100% for the club and I'm excited to hopefully score some goals and win some games."

"I will never ever give anything less than 100% for the club and I'm excited to hopefully score some goals and win some games"

2022/23

19th, League Two

Newport County have forged themselves as regulars within 'The 92' since their return to the Football League but after a poor 2022/23 season, they are eyeing a return to the top half of League Two under Graham Coughlan.

A 15th placed finish last term represented a regression on their 11th place finish in the 2021/22 season and saw them finish outside of the top half for just the second time in six seasons.

The Welsh club have had two play-off finishes in recent times and have captivated fans around the United Kingdom with spells of FA Cup magic against the likes of Tottenham Hotspur and Manchester City.

The summer saw many familiar faces from last season leaving Rodney Parade for pastures new. Mickey Demetriou and Cameron Norman, who both featured over 50 times in Exiles' colours, have moved as have regulars Priestley Farquharson and Aaron Lewis.

In their place Ryan Delaney, Shane McLoughlin and Bryn Morris have arrived and all settled into regular roles in the starting XI. Complimenting them are a trio of loanees. Left-backs Adam Lewis and Matthew Bondswell have come in from Liverpool's and Newcastle's academies respectively whilst striker Seb Palmer-Houlden has hopped across the bridge from Bristol City.

They join a group of players at the club that are led by forward Omar Bogle, who netted 19 times last season, and stepping up to the mark this season has been winger Will Evans with 10 goals to his name already.

The Exiles will be looking to leave their lasting effect on is the EFL Trophy, with the Exiles yet to play a game so far. In last season's competition they progressed from their group after wins against Exeter City and Southampton U21s before falling to Milton Keynes Dons in the first knockout round.

Having already been knocked out of the League Cup, Coughlan and co will be hoping to start strongly in the EFL Trophy, beginning with their trip to the Completely-Suzuki.

WEST HAM UNITED U21s

Led by manager Steve Potts, the young Hammers got their EFL Trophy campaign off to a flying start, defeating Bristol Rovers by three goals to one. Goals from young ace Callum Marshall either side of a George Earthy finish saw them get off to the perfect start at the Memorial Stadium.

And it's been a pretty impressive start in the league too. As of October 9th, they've lost just once in Premier League 2 Division 1, defeating the likes of Sunderland, Leeds United and Everton already this term.

They've also impressed internationally, seeing off both Valencia and Celtic in the U21 International Cup. They beat the Scottish outfit by an impressive 5-0 score line, with Divin Mubama and Marshall once again netting twice.

Marshall is one of the many dangerous assets the young side possess. The Northern Irishman has registered an impressive double digit haul for goal involvements already this season. The aforementioned Mubama as well as Gideon Kodua make up a threatening front line for the young Irons.

They also have Dan Chesters in their ranks, who made a Premier League appearance for the first team toward the end of the 2021/22 season in a 1-0 defeat to Liverpool.

Cheltenham and the young Hammers have come face to face on two previous occasions in Gloucestershire, with a total of 10 goals in those two fixtures alone. Each of the sides have picked up one win each, leaving this upcoming fixture finely poised.

Only on two occasions have the young West Ham outfit made it out of the group stages in this competition but neither of those times came when in a group with the Robins. They've begun well this time around, but will they be able to get the job done this season?

KELLY-MARIE SELBY

What made you decide to be a part of Her Game Too?

Growing up playing and watching football, the sexist comments that I received were unreal, even as a teenage girl. So when the opportunity came knocking it was a no-brainer to make a difference, not just now but for generations to come.

What is your favourite Cheltenham Town memory?

When I took my son Lewis to his first away match to Mansfield. I can't remember the score but that doesn't matter because it was the day my five-year-old fell in love with Cheltenham and goalkeeping thanks to the then-goalkeeper, Russ Griffiths, handing him his gloves at the end of the match.

What is something people may not know about you?

I've done a skydive, a wing walk and a fire walk for charity.

Match prediction: Cheltenham 0-2 Derby

TAZ SCOLES

What made you decide to be a part of Her Game Too?

I joined after watching the dedicated match and I loved what it stood for. Being a woman, watching and playing football is difficult for many reasons. I want to be a part of changing that.

What is your favourite Cheltenham Town memory?

The 3-1 win against Exeter. Everyone in the stand was buzzing and just felt pure happiness!

What is something people may not know about you?

I have got Caleb Taylor's away shirt from the Lincoln away match. It hangs proudly in my bedroom!

Match prediction: Cheltenham 1-3 Derby

MARY STONES

What made you decide to be a part of Her Game Too?

Whilst being an advocate for Her Game Too, I am also the campaign treasurer and I'm about to start my ACA/CTA exams to become a chartered accountant.

Her Game Too came up on my Twitter just before the dedicated fixture last season, and I knew it was something I wanted to be a part of. For me it's not about changing football, it's about making it a space where more women feel comfortable, a place that is more accessible for women.

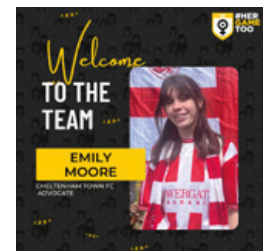

What is your favourite Cheltenham Town memory?

My favourite game was at home to Halifax in 2016 when we got promoted to League Two. I had my French exchange over and she had no clue what was going on as we dragged her onto the pitch! I tried to be helpful shouting "nous gagné", but with my awful French accent I don't think she understood that either...

EMILY MOORE

What made you decide to be a part of Her Game Too?

I decided to be part of Her Game Too to help encourage young people like myself to love and become involved with the game of women's football.

What is your favourite Cheltenham Town memory?

Being a mascot for our game against Forest Green on my birthday.

Match prediction: Cheltenham 1-1 Derby
