THE MANAGER DARRELL CLARKE

Happy New Year Robins fans and welcome back to the Completely-Suzuki Stadium for our first game of 2024. I'd also like to welcome John and his staff as well as the fans and players from Portsmouth to Cheltenham today.

Looking back to Monday's defeat at Northampton, it was a hugely frustrating one as we asked a lot of questions of a side in the top half of the table and one error cost us in the game. I felt all three points were there for the taking.

However, to be on 20 points at the halfway point of the season has given us a fighting chance of survival. There's still a lot of work to be done but I can't fault the group's effort and endeavour. They've given me absolutely everything.

The January transfer window presents us with a chance to strengthen and add a few experienced heads who will help push the team forward and give us the quality and decision making we need to stay in League One.

Once again I hope you all had a good New Year and enjoy your day at today's game.

POST NORTHAMPTON AND THE FESTIVE PERIOD

A frustrating afternoon I can imagine?

All of us in there are really frustrated. It's happened a few times this year where you can see people are putting in the performances and it is just tough to come away with the result, we know we deserve.

Especially coming off the back of Friday, being 2-0 up in that one and now not getting anything here.

It's tough. It's happened a few times. The fans and everyone involved can see we're working hard and doing what's effective in the game and sometimes the results are just not coming. Everyone involved in the club, players and fans, can see we're frustrated but we just have to keep pushing and fighting.

Today it just seemed to be that final ball, didn't it? You got into some really good positions high up the pitch on several occasions.

We were camped in their half especially in the first half for so long. It's just that final bit of quality in the final third. We know we are capable of so much more in terms of the final third. It's all good and well being in them areas but if we don't capitalise when we're on top, you come away with zero points when we know there was probably three points for us today. All of us know we are building and adding more but we need to add that final piece of the puzzle.

Then even more disappointing the nature of how you've lost the game to a penalty?

Definitely. The gaffer said it was a tight game that will be won or lost on either a bit of magic or a mistake and we fell the wrong side of it which is disappointing. It happens in football and we've got to make sure we fall on the right side of it.

The manager said he's quite angry and frustrated. Is that the mood in the dressing room as well?

Definitely. That speaks a lot into where we are getting to as a team as a club. Where we come away to a mid-table club like this and we're disappointed. From the outside it looks like 1-0 but anyone watching it will know that we played a good game, done well and dominated at times. The frustration and anger just shows where we are getting to as a club.

8th, League One

Portsmouth are one of a number of big clubs at League One level, yet they have become a fixture of the third tier in recent years, although a return to the second tier could be on the horizon.

Colby Bishop

Memories for many football fans when asked about Pompey would centre around their FA Cup win in 2008.

However, relegation from the top flight followed two seasons later, ending a seven year stint in the Premier League. Financial difficulties followed, that eventually saw the club slide down to League Two. Pompey made it back to League One but that's where they've remained for the past seven seasons.

In two of those they have made the play-offs, but both of which have been met with semi-final defeats. Last term's eighth placed finish condemned the club to another League One season, but John Mousinho has overseen a dramatic change in fortunes this campaign.

Pompey sit top of League One after 15 wins from their opening 25 games, boosted by a 16-game unbeaten run to kick off the season. One of those games was against today's opponents Cheltenham Town in a bizarre 0-0 draw that ended with a fan deputising as a linesman in the second half.

Back to the present and a recent stumble has seen them only win two of their five games over the festive period. However, they do have happy memories of the Completely-Suzuki Stadium, picking up a 2-0 win back in August 2022.

With Sporting Director Richard Hughes enduring his first Summer transfer window, Pompey made big moves in bolstering their squad ahead of this new season. Coming in through the door, Jack Sparkes has hit the ground running alongside fellow full-back Joe Rafferty, who was already at the club, with both providing a prolific threat in the final third. Whilst goalkeeper Will Norris and defender Conor Shaughnessy have joined forces in a defence that has conceded the least in League One.

Familiar names in their ranks include the league's fifth highest goalscorer in Colby Bishop with 13 goals this season as well as winger Paddy Lane providing seven of his own alongside five assists too. Behind them in the engine room lie the experienced duo of Marlon Pack and Joe Morrell giving Mousinho's side a solid base to ply their attacking brand of football.

GETTING TO KNOW VICKY LAMB, PORTSMOUTH AMBASSADOR.

What made you want to be a part of Her Game Too?

HGT is a fantastic campaign, so when the opportunity to be a part of it came I had to jump on it. I'm passionate about football being for all, and by working with HGT and Portsmouth, we can make Fratton Park a safe space for all to enjoy!

Fun fact about yourself!

Despite following Pompey on mammoth away trips like Sunderland, Newcastle, Carlisle etc... this is my first time at Cheltenham!

One to watch - who's the Portsmouth player Cheltenham should watch out for?

Abu Kamara, since being posted out on the right he's changed our game. He was so unlucky to not get a hat-trick against Stevenage on New Year's Day, so hopefully he'll put them chances away today!

Score predictions?

3-1 Pompey - Bishop, Lane, Kamara.
